

AAUW Baker Branch Minutes 12/3/16
Blue Door Inn, hostess Gaynelle Nielsen

Call to order at 9:30 am
Seven members and one guest present.
There was one guest present – Gretchen Stadler.

The minutes of the last meeting were accepted with an addition:
Addition – list of places for Barriers and Biases books, one each to be distributed by members:
County Library-Jen A; High School- Ann B; BMCC- Wanda R; N Baker School- Ann B; Middle School-
Wanda R; Huntington School- Karen Z, Halfway School- Wanda R; Unity School- Wanda R; Ontario

Dixie reported that our secretary, Karen, has made the mandated changes to our by-laws and submitted them to State for approval.

The outline of Women's Celebration plans were presented and a work sheet sent around for everyone to sign up to help.

Women's Celebration – Theme : She's So Cool: Personal stories of women who stepped-up into positions of advocacy, activism, and leadership.

Thursday April 6, Senior Center- it has been reserved

Desserts and Appetizers

Possible guest speakers – Liz Estabrooks – Advocate for Women Veterans
Amy Yardley – Advocate for her child with autism (former member of our local chapter)
Ma'Lena Wirth – Advocate for hispanic families
Rosemary Abel or Kim Mosier – City Council Members
Mickey Edwards – Chair - Long-Term Care Ombudsman
Local student ?

Silent Auction- using bid numbers, not names

Wine – tickets $15 per bottle; sell 1 ticket per bottle. Each buyer gets a numbered ticket and they get the bottle with the same number. All wine retails for $15 or more.

Growlers of beer – like we do the wine, price to be determined

Raffle – High end item, tickets sell for $10 - $20, sell tickets before Event, need not be present to win.

Next Meeting: Saturday 1/7, 9:15 am, Wanda and Bruce's, 1198 D St. Program- Megan Alameda, winner of Presidential Innovation Award , Excellence in Education.

Meeting was adjourned and the Annual Gift Auction was held with Wanda as auctioneer, assisted by Dixie.

Respectfully submitted by Dixie Driggers